Servant of God Archbishop Mar Ivanios

An Educationist Par Excellence

Venerable Mar Ivanios is held in deep reverence for his devotion to God and man. He is a blessed soul who has inspired thousands through his prayer life, charismatic personality, broad vision, ascetic ministry, and untiring efforts for peace and human well-being.

Mar Ivanios was born in Mavelikara, Kerala on 21 September, 1882. He took his MA Degree from Madras Christian College in 1907. This won him the familiar appellation ‘M.A. Achen’ as he was the first to achieve this qualification among the clergy from the Syrian Orthodox fold.

During the period 1913-1919 he occupied, on invitation, the coveted Chairs of Professor of Economics and Syriac in Serampore University College, Calcutta. In recognition of his scholarship, he was appointed the Chairman of the Board of Studies for Eastern Languages of the University for a Long Spell. His commitment to the cause of women’s education is evidenced by the provision he gained at Diocesan College, Calcutta to admit female students from Kerala. On 1 May, 1925 he was consecrated Bishop.

As entrusted by the Synod of the Malankara Church held at Mavelikara in 1926 he took the initiative for the Communion of the Malankara Church with the Universal Catholic Church. But the Synod backtracked from the decision later. Responding positively to the call of the Holy Spirit, Mar Ivanios, with his followers, came into Communion with the Universal Catholic Church on 20 September, 1930. Mar Ivanios is rightly revered as the Prophet of Unity. Convinced of the fact that the empowering of people is possible only through education, he established several educational institutions including Mar Ivanios College, Trivandrum. This clearly reveals his futuristic vision on higher education.

On 15 July 1953 he was called to eternal rest. Thousands of people hail him as a Saint. On 15 July, 2007 the Holy Episcopal Synod of the Malankara Catholic Church declared him the Servant of God.

PRAYER

*Come Holy Spirit
Fall afresh on me
Fill me with your power
Satisfy my needs
Only you can make me whole
Give me strength to make me grow
Come Holy Spirit*
